Notice

Warning to students with less attendance

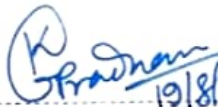

All students of Mathematics Honors, General, Major and students having Mathematics as Minor are hereby instructed to attend their Mathematics classes as per the routine provided by the Department for ODD Semester of the Session 2026-27. The above students are also notified that their class attendance will be counted strictly and are asked to keep attendance percentage above 70%, failing which they will be disqualified for Internal Assessment and several punishments will be imposed to defaulter students.

Further, the newly admitted students in the current semester are asked to attend regular classes as per the provided time table or as per the instruction given in WhatsApp group of the department. They are also asked to improve their class attendance by attending the classes regularly otherwise their name will be deleted from attendance khata.

Defaulter students (attendance below 70%) are not allowed to sit for the Internal Assessment examination, hence will be considered Absent in the said exam.
